SPENDING TIME WITH CHILDREN IN NATURE

Železná studienka

Železná studienka, Partizánska lúka, and Mlyn Klepáč form the largest complex of children's playgrounds and sports fields in a beautiful natural environment, only 30 minutes away from the centre of Bratislava. The location is the starting point of walking and cycling trips to the Little Carpathians. If you walk up the hill from Železná studienka, you will arrive in the Kačín recreational area. The Železná studienka forest park is connected to the recreational area in Koliba (on Kamzík hill) by a chair lift.

Koliba – Kamzík

The Kamzík TV Tower is an inseparable part of the Bratislava panorama. When on a trip with children, you will appreciate not only the beautiful views of the city surrounded by the greenery but also a summer bobsleigh track, children's playgrounds and a rope centre in the treetops. Hungry children will be delighted with the array of takeaway food options, while gastronomes will be pleased with the gourmet restaurant at the top of the TV tower.

Janko Král' Park

Take a stroll through the oldest public park in Central Europe, which was founded by the Empress Maria Theresa. The large park offers a lot of activities for spending your free time, such as playing frisbee and ball games, and children may also enjoy in-line skating and scooter rides. Parents of the youngest will be delighted with the children's garden Leberfinger with a playground and a café. Magio Beach – a large sandy beach with a bar and a view of the city and the castle hill – is spread along the Danube from June to September. Every day there is a playful summer programme ready for children and adults alike.

Bratislava Zoo and DinoPark

Children love animals, which is why they will enjoy visiting Bratislava Zoo and DinoPark. There are more than 170 species of animals in the Zoo, most of which are impossible for the children to see in the wild. The DinoPark with life-size models of dinosaurs is part of the Zoo. When playing on a paleontological playground or visiting a 3D cinema, children will have a good time and learn something new.
